

Inaugural Educational Theory to Practice Conference

27 November 2009 | University of Melbourne | Hawthorn Campus

The Conference brings together researchers and practitioners in order to recognise and offer input on how theory affects practice and new research initiatives enhance school psychology.

Submissions are now invited and should be emailed to Felicity Cronan at fcronan@optusnet.com.au by 6 September 2009.

Papers submitted should be relevant to the practice of educational psychology by either addressing issues of theoretical or practical significance to the field. For more information on submitting an abstract go to www.groups.psychology.org.au/cedp/events\_pd/2009\_conference/#abstracts.
