

MONASH University

Scholarship/Bursary Ian Little Honours Scholarship in Economics

Overview and Background

It is proposed that the Ian Little Honours Scholarship in Economics be introduced in 2013 for the highest academically ranked incoming student to the Economics Honours cohort. The scholarship is awarded from the Ian Little Memorial Fund, which was set up to commemorate the work of Ian Little, Secretary of the Victorian Department of Treasury and Finance (DTF) from 1998 to 2006. The fund was endowed jointly by the DTF and Monash University.

Eligibility

To be eligible, applicants must be:

- Australian or New Zealand citizen, holder of an Australian permanent resident visa or permanent humanitarian visa, or an international student
- Commencing full-time in the economics honours program at Monash Clayton campus

Selection criteria

Automatic selection based on academic achievement. To the highest ranked incoming Honours student for 2013.

Value and Number available

$10,000 per annum for one year only.
One scholarship will be offered each year.

Retention

The scholar must maintain full-time enrolment and a minimum of an honours level 2A (distinction) grade average for the duration of the degree.