Economics and Econometrics Specialization

Entry Requirement:

Monash Commerce/Commerce Specialist degree students should normally have completed

(i)

      ECC2000 intermediate microeconomics

      ECC2010 Intermediate macrceconomics

      ETC2410 Introductory econometrics

      and at least two third-year economics units.

AND

(ii) at least two third-year econometrics units including:

(a) at least one of:

      ETC3400 Principles of econometrics (S2)

      ETC3410/ECC3410 Applied econometrics. (S1&2)

AND

(b) at least two of:

      ETC3400 Principles of econometrics (S2)

      ETC3410/ECC3410 Applied econometrics. (S1&2)

      ETC3450 Time series analysis for business and economics (S2)

      ETC3460 Financial econometrics. (S1)

Applicants from other universities or from other Monash degree programs will be assessed on a case-by-case basis.

Program:

(a) ECC4860/ETC4860 Honours research project (12 points)

(b) Three units (18 points) from the following list:

      ECC4650 Microeconomics

      ECC4660 Macroeconomics

      ETC4410 Applied econometrics 2

      ETC4420 Microeconometrics

(c) Up to three further units (18 points) from the following list, subject to the condition that students complete a total of three ECC units and three ETC units in (b) or (c):

      ECC4670 Development economics

      ECC4690 International trade

      ECC4810 Public economics

      ECC4830 Welfare economics – Not offered in 2017

      ECC4840 Economics of industry, institution and organisation

      ECC4700 Competition, regulation and policy

      ECC4750 Financial economics

ECC4790 Project evaluation

ETC4400 Econometric theory

ETC4460 Financial econometrics 2

ETC4541 Special topics in econometrics

Students can vary this list subject to the following conditions: a maximum of one third year-level unit taught by the Department of Economics or the Department of Econometrics and Business Statistics.

Students must have their enrolment approved by the Honours program coordinators.