

ReadMe File Attributes:
Case study Name	Save a Baby Kangaroo (Teacher) Save a Baby Kangaroo (Pupil) optional for schools where pupils with access to computers regularly can complete the material on computers/laptops.
Installation Instructions & Getting Started Documentation	Teacher Guide: All of the materials supplied with this Case are part of an integrated whole. Built into the website are all the instructions, lesson plans, resources and supplementary materials necessary to run the Case. All materials in the pupil website are self explanatory. It contains all the materials for the pupils to be able to complete the Case. Pupils will need a Record Booklet to complete and hand in, other wise the site is self contained for pupils. /content_teacher/Introduction.pdf The Case (Teacher) is self explanatory and begins from Start_teacher.htm. The Case for pupils begins from Start_pupil.htm It maybe necessary to have the IT coordinator/technician in the school load the Case (for pupils) onto the intranet or individual computers prior to commencing using the case in the classroom.
Hardware & Software Requirements	The website should be cross platform. It has been designed using PC format, but converted to html. The websites are best viewed with Internet Explorer or Mozilla Firefox. Please Note: Microsoft Office and Adobe Reader are required in order to display some of the additional files from this Case. The video clips require Windows Media Player or other video media player that can play .wmv files.