LESSON ONE - WHAT'S YOUR DECISION?

1. Write down your estimate of the time an umpire has for making a decision in a close run-out situation.

_____________

2. Just by looking at the photograph, make a decision whether you think the batsman is IN or OUT.

__________

Give a reason for your choice.

___________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________

3. What EXTRA INFORMATION do you need to know to be able to decide whether the batsman was IN or OUT? Write a list.

___________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________

4. Consider your list of extra information. Which of these factors represent quantities that can change or vary?

___________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________

5. Quantities that can change or vary are called “variables”. Which of the variables in your list can be measured?

___________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________